Now working with his secret agent wife Lucy Wilde (voice of Wig) at the Anti-Villain League, former super-villain Gru (Carell) is tasked with taking down a new enemy in the form of former child star Balthazar Bratt (Parker). Having grown up to become obsessed by the eccentric character he played in the 1980s, Bratt has hatched a scheme for world domination and will seemingly do anything to achieve his goal. With the fate of the world hanging in the balance, it once again falls to the unique talents of Gru and his minions to step up to the plate and save the day. The cast also includes Steve Coogan, Russell Brand, Miranda Cosgrove and Dana Gaier.

MAUDIE (12A)

Sally Hawkins and Ethan Hawke star in this romance drama directed by Aisling Walsh. Maud Lewis (Hawkins) is a well known folk artist but she is crippled by arthritis and struggles with simple, everyday tasks. All she dreams of is being able to live and cope on her own and so she answers an advertisement for a housekeeper. Everett (Hawke) is a lonely fish peddler who yearns for human company. When he decides to place an advert for a housekeeper, the lady who applies, Maud, is less than satisfactory at housework, but the two kindred spirits grow close in ways neither could ever have imagined.

CAPTAIN UNDERPANTS (U)

From DreamWorks Animation comes an epic feature film about a hero and his underpants. It's about two boys who create a homemade comic book character that becomes real when they hypnotize their fun-crushing school principal and convince him that he...is tra-la-la...Captain Underpants.

AMERICAN MADE (15)

In Universal Pictures' American Made, Tom Cruise reunites with his Edge of Tomorrow director, Doug Liman (The Bourne Identity, Mr. and Mrs. Smith), in this international escapade based on the outrageous (and real) exploits of a hustler and pilot unexpectedly recruited by the CIA to run one of the biggest covert operations in U.S. history. Based on a true story, American Made co-stars Domhnall Gleeson, Sarah Wright, E. Roger Mitchell, Jesse Plemons, Lola Kirke, Alejandro Edda, Benito Martinez, Caleb Landry Jones and Jayma Mays.

LOGAN LUCKY (12A)

Jimmy Logan (Channing Tatum) is from a blue-collar family from the hills of West Virginia, whose clan has been famous for its bad luck for nearly 90 years. After being fired from his job, and with his ex-wife (Katie Holmes) threatening to move out of State taking their daughter with her, Jimmy decides he has to do something to get his family's life back on track. With a little help from his brother Clyde Logan (Adam Driver), his sister Mellie (Riley Keough) and an incarcerated explosive expert, the aptly named Joe Bang (Daniel Craig), he plans to steal $14 million from the Charlotte Motor Speedway on the busiest race day of the Year. Directed by Academy Award-winner Steven Soderbergh (Ocean's Eleven, Magic Mike, Traffic), Logan Lucky also stars Hilary Swank, Seth MacFarlane, Katherine Waterston and Brian Gleeson.

In 1964, while on a short trip to Paris, the American writer and art-lover James Lord is asked by his friend, the world-renowned artist Alberto Giacometti, to sit for a portrait. The process, Giacometti assures Lord, will take only a few days. Flattered and intrigued, Lord agrees.

ROUGH NIGHT (15)

In Rough Night, an edgy comedy, five best friends from college (played by Scarlett Johansson, Kate McKinnon, Jillian Bell, Ilana Glazer, and Zoë Kravitz) reunite 10 years later for a wild bachelorette weekend in Miami. Their hard partying takes a hilariously dark turn when they accidentally kill a male stripper. Amidst the craziness of trying to figure out what to do, their night takes some hilariously unexpected turns, ultimately bringing them closer together when it matters most.
